COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is an interdisciplinary introductory study of the African continent, its people and culture. It will explore the nature of traditional society, the processes of change that have shaped the continent's development and the effects of those processes in historical and contemporary contexts. The course, therefore, offers students a unique opportunity to explore the historic, socio-cultural, economic and political diversity within the continent through an disciplinary lens. Emphasis will be on giving the students an overview of geographical, social and economic conditions from an interdisciplinary perspective.

OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

This course aims at assisting students to:

- Develop a holistic understanding of the continent and its people, beyond the parochial dominant images found in the media as as a continent of conflict, disease, and exotica .
- Appreciate the similarities, diversity, challenges, triumphs and possibilities that characterize the continent.
- Understand how historical events and various actors have shaped, and continue to shape, developments on the continent as well as insights into the profound impact of Africa on the rest of the world.

OUTCOMES

At the end the course student should able to:

- demonstrate a holistic understanding of the continent and its people, beyond the parochial images found in the media as as a continent of conflict, disease and exotica
- demonstrate sound knowledge of the historical, physical and cultural geography of the continent and how these aspects have shaped and continues impact the political, economic and socio-cultural development of the African continent
- demonstrate a basic understanding of African Studies and as a fossilized discipline, but one that is vibrant and related to their contemporary experience
- Read, think and write critically on African issues and debates.

TEXTBOOKS AND READINGS

Required textbooks (available for purchase at the University Bookstore):

- Chinua Achebe 2005. Things Fall Apart
- Gordon A. and D. L. Gordon (Eds). 2013. Understanding Contemporary Africa.

The recommended text books are available at the University library):

ASSIGNMENTS AND EVALUATION

Book Review	20%	Oct.18
Mid-Term Exam	40%	Oct. 25
Final Exam	40%	To be scheduled by Registrar
All assignments must be completed in order to pass the course. All written assignments (including, although to a lesser extent, written exams) will be assessed at least partly on writing skills. Writing skills include not only surface correction (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure etc) but also general clarity

SCHEDULE OF LECTURES AND READINGS

To be made available on D2L.

BOOK REVIEW 20% (Due October 18, to be collected in class.)

The book review entails writing a critical analysis of the novel Things Fall Apart. You must indicate how the issues covered in the book relate to Africa or the themes covered in the course.

NOTE:

The review must not be more than 3 PAGES TYPED AND DOUBLED-SPACED in 12 PT FONT. Page margins should be 1 INCH (2.5 cm) wide, and all pages should be numbered. Students are urged to stay within the maximum word and/or page length, or risk a penalty. A bibliography and brief appendix are not included in the length restrictions. Double-sided assignments are encouraged to save paper, but are not mandatory. Information to be included on the title page: title of paper, course code, instructor's name, student ID, and date of submission.

The level of analysis is suitable for a third-year university course.

- A critical analysis requires an evaluation of the arguments made by the author, and this means you have to read carefully to find out what the author's argument(s) is/are. You may find the argument(s) stated in the book's introduction. The next step is to consider what the author provides in subsequent chapters.
- A well-written book will remind readers of the main arguments as it proceeds. The concluding chapter of the book will summarize the author's own appraisal of the argument(s) and evidence. This does not mean that you can read the introduction and conclusion, and write a good review; you need to demonstrate that you know what each chapter contains, and how it contributes to the main argument(s).
- In addition, a critical assessment requires that you assess the argument(s) and comment on whether you think the book meets the author's stated objective(s). This assessment is not a simple option, but a thoughtful evaluation of how well the author has succeeded in convincing you, the reader, of the value of the argument and the evidence used to support it. Your own conclusions should also say something about what you have learned about the subject, having read the book, and what else you might want to know that was not addressed in the book.

- As you read, it is useful to carry on a “dialogue” with the author, asking yourself if you agree with what is being said, or whether something is missing. You will need to say something about the author’s relationship with the subject, and about his/her methods. In some cases, you will have to be a detective to find out what you want to know.
- Correct spelling is important. Use a dictionary and a computer spelling and grammar checker.
- Create a draft of your review, and then look at it again a day or so later. When you do a second draft, make sure that the ideas follow coherently from one another. Move text around if you need to. Weed out repetitive words and phrases. Vary the length of sentences. Read the review aloud, to see how it “flows.” The final product will reflect the care you have put into its creation.
- If you wish, you may use the first person. Also, use the active voice as much as possible.
- Use a correct bibliographical format (both in-text and the final list of references).

Citation guidelines for book review.

In-text citations styles:

- (Doe 2001:1) when you use direct quote.
- (Doe 2001) when you reference an idea.

Final Bibliography:

- Book: Doe, John. 2001. This Is My Term Paper. Calgary: My Own Publications.
- Book Chapter: Doe, Jane 2001. "Time Is Up," in J. Doe and J. Doe (eds), Our Group Project, pp. 1-20. Calgary: My Own Publications
- Journal Article: Doe Jane. 2001 "Continuing to Work Hard," Journal of Hard Work, vol. 1, no. 1, 2001, pp. 1-20

NOTE: Evaluation of your Review paper will be based on the following:

Well-informed review or discussion:

Coherence of arguments - clear and logical progression of ideas and thoughts throughout the paper.

- Clarity of expression and quality of grammar.
- A critical level of analysis as opposed to descriptive analysis.
- Understanding and application of lectures, readings and other relevant literature.
- Well-formatted bibliography or list of references
- Ample in-text citations or references. Note all direct quotes must have page numbers.
- Note that substantial marks will be taken off for improper citation and bibliographical formatting. For guidance on proper bibliographic format visit the University of Calgary library website on the topic.

It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each assignment submitted. Students should be prepared to provide a second copy of their assignment if requested. Students who cannot provide a second copy of their essays may risk receiving a zero grade for this portion of the course.

Note: Please hand in your essays directly to your instructor. If it is not possible to do so, a daytime drop box is available in ES 622. A night drop box is also available for after-hours submission. Assignments will be removed the following morning, stamped with the previous day's date, and placed in the instructor's mailbox.

MID-TERM EXAM 40% (October 25, in class.)

This is closed-book exam designed to test your grasp of the material covered in lectures and from course readings up to the date of the exam. This means that you will be expected to have read all the required and recommended readings on all topics covered in the course up to the date of the exam. The best way to prepare for this exercise is to read and reflect on the lectures and course material. Exams will also cover lectures by guest speakers and information from videos/films shown in the class.

Note: No alternate dates for the exam will be provided unless the student has been legitimately excused.

FINAL EXAM 40% (Registrar's Scheduled – TBA)

The final exam follows the same format as the midterm. Details will be discussed in Class.

Registrar-scheduled Final Examination: Yes.

Please note: If your class is held in the evening, the Registrar's Office will make every attempt to schedule the final exam during the evening; however, there is NO guarantee that the exam will NOT be scheduled during the day.

USE OF E-MAIL:

Due to a high volume of e-mail messages received on a daily basis, students are advised to meet me either during my office hours or to make an appointment with me on matters that require urgent attention. Please note that e-mail messages can be sent to the wrong address, accidentally deleted, buried or may mysteriously disappear into cyberspace. All questions and requests should therefore be made in person, especially if they concern extensions and other urgent matters. I will normally reply emails within 72- hours, during regular business hours.

Questions and information of general interest will be addressed in class or posted on Desire2Learn. Students are encouraged and advised to use their ucalgary accounts or Desire2Learn in all their communication with me and with their peers.

Please feel welcome to discuss with me any aspect of the course requirements or package you think is unclear to you.

POLICY FOR LATE ASSIGNMENTS:

Assignments submitted after the deadline may be penalized with the loss of a grade (e.g. A- to B+) for each day late. Extensions will only be granted under extraordinary circumstances, not including having too much other work to do. A REQUEST FOR EXTENSION FORM will be posted on D2L. This form should be filled out and submitted to me two weeks before the due date for the submission of the assignment.

GRADING SYSTEM

The following grading system is used in the Faculty of Arts. Where a grade on a particular assignment is expressed as a letter grade, it will normally be converted to a number using the midpoint of the scale. That is, A- would be converted to 87.5 for calculation purposes. An F will be converted to zero.

Grading Scale
A+	94.9 - 100
A	89.9 - 94.8
A -	84.9 - 89.8
B+	79.9 - 84.8
B	74.9 - 79.8
B-	70.9 - 74.8
C+	66.9 - 70.8
C	62.9 - 66.8
C-	58.9 - 62.8
D+	54.9 - 58.8
D	49.9 - 54.8
F	49.8 and below

INTERNET AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION DEVICE INFORMATION

The use of cell phones is not allowed during lectures. Students may use computers in class, however, the instructor reserves the right to forbid students from using computers if their use is disruptive to the class. This may include chatting online, playing music or games etc. during class.

PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING

Plagiarism: "to steal and pass off the ideas or words of another as one's own" (Webster's). Plagiarism will not be tolerated and will automatically result in a failing grade for the submission. Any student caught plagiarizing will also be subject to additional University sanctions. Students are expected to be familiar with the Department of Anthropology and Archaeology's policy on intellectual honesty

DEFERRED EXAMS:

A student who is absent from a test for legitimate reasons must discuss an alternative course of action with the instructor. The instructor at their discretion may transfer the percentage weight for the test to the final examination, if there is a final examination in the course, set another test, etc. An instructor will normally make this decision on the basis of verbal information provided by the student. In the event that an instructor feels that they cannot judge the veracity of the information provided, Students must be aware that they are responsible for payment of any charge associated with the medical assessment and documentation as this service falls outside the realm of services provided by the Provincial Health Care Plan. Deferral of the final exam requires Registrar approval.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy>

Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Students needing an Accommodation based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to the instructor of this course.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is essential to the pursuit of learning and scholarship in a university, and to ensuring that a degree from the University of Calgary is a strong signal of each student's individual academic achievements. As a result, the University treats cases of cheating and plagiarism very seriously. Non-academic integrity also constitutes an important component of this program.

For detailed information on what constitutes academic and non-academic misconduct, please refer to the following link: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2-1.html>

All suspected cases of academic and non-academic misconduct will be investigated following procedures outlined in the University Calendar. If you have questions or concerns about what constitutes appropriate academic behavior or appropriate research and citation methods, you are expected to seek out additional information on academic integrity from your instructor or from other institutional resources.

Where there is a criminal act involved in plagiarism, cheating or other academic misconduct, e.g., theft (taking another student's paper from their possession, or from the possession of a faculty member without permission), breaking and entering (forcibly entering an office to gain access to papers, grades or records), forgery, personation and conspiracy (impersonating another student by agreement and writing their paper) and other such offences under the Criminal Code of Canada, the University may take legal advice on the appropriate response and, where appropriate, refer the matter to the police, in addition to or in substitution for any action taken under these regulations by the University

TEACHING EVALUATIONS / USRI (Universal Student Ratings of Instruction)

At the University of Calgary, feedback provided by students through the Universal Student Ratings of Instruction (USRI) survey provides valuable information to help with evaluating instruction, enhancing learning and teaching, and selecting courses. Your responses make a difference, please participate! Website: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/usri/>

Writing Across the Curriculum

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support, part of the Student Success Centre, can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance

Emergency Evacuation Assembly Points: In the event of an emergency that requires evacuation, please refer to the following link to become familiar with the assembly points for the class: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints>

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act: Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act

The University of Calgary is committed to protecting the privacy of individuals who work and study at the University or who otherwise interact with the University in accordance with the standards set out in the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. Please refer to the following link for detailed information: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/legalservices/foip>
The Department of Anthropology and Archaeology's FOIP (Freedom of Information and Privacy) policy requires all reports/examinations to be returned to students during class time or the instructor's office hours. Any term work not picked up will be placed in the Anthropology and Archaeology Office (ES620) for distribution. Any student not wishing to have their work placed in the office must make alternative arrangements with the course instructor early in the term.

Safewalk Information: Campus Security, in partnership with the Students' Union, provides the Safewalk service, 24 hours a day to any location on Campus including the LRT, parking lots, bus zones and University residences. Contact Campus Security at (403) 220-5333 or use a help phone, and Safewalkers or a Campus Security Officer will accompany you to your campus destination.

Faculty of Arts Program Advising and Student Information Resources: Have a question, but not sure where to start? Arts Students' Centre

The Faculty of Arts Students' Centre is the overall headquarters for undergraduate programs in the Faculty of Arts. The key objective of this office is to connect students with whatever academic assistance that they require.
