Contact Information
Since the class is very large, please refrain from emailing the instructor to ask general questions, such as questions about the course outline, exam format, and quizzes. Please ask general questions in the forum of D2L because other students are likely to have the same questions as you do. I will answer your questions asked in the forum, or your fellow students may answer before me. This way, we can share FAQs and their answers. The TA can also help you find answers to your general questions.

If you have a personal question or concern, you can reach the instructor or the TA at the above email addresses (not on the phone). When emailing the TA or myself, please include the word “ANTH203” in the subject line of email message. We appreciate concise and appropriate email messages. We will attempt to respond to emails in a timely fashion, that is, within two working days. The volume of messages we receive may mean responding beyond this period.

Official Course Description
The nature of human society: its elements, its variability and its perpetuation. Comparisons of institutions (political, economic, religious, educational and sexual) in both small-scale and large-scale societies.

Course Objectives
This course will introduce students to social and cultural anthropology. Drawing from case studies in the course textbook and from other sources, we will explore the fundamental issues and approaches within social and cultural anthropology. Topics of interest include the basic social institutions (e.g., kinship, religion, economy, and politics), and the interactions between societies. This course will emphasize the diversity of human culture, the commonalities and differences across human cultures, and the continuing relevance of anthropological analysis in a globalizing world. Lessons that students have learned in this course provide the foundation for upper-level courses.

Online meeting schedule
This course is designed to meet asynchronously. If you need to have an online meeting with the Instructor or the TA, you can book an appointment. In general, the meeting time will be on weekday afternoons.

Course Learning Outcomes
The Department of Anthropology and Archaeology is committed to student knowledge and skill development. The table below lists the key learning outcomes for this course, the program-learning outcomes to which they contribute, and the expected level of achievement:

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION

Principles of Conduct
The University Calendar includes a statement on the principles of conduct expected of all members of the university community (including students, faculty, administrators, any category of staff, practicum supervisors, and volunteers), whether on or off university property. This statement applies in all situations where members of the university community are acting in their university capacities. All members of the university community have a responsibility to familiarize themselves with the principles of conduct statement, which is available at: www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html.

Plagiarism, Cheating, and Student Misconduct
The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect.

Academic dishonesty is not an acceptable activity at the University of Calgary, and students are strongly advised to read the Student Misconduct section in the University Calendar at: www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-3.html. Often, students are unaware of what constitutes academic dishonesty or plagiarism. The most common are (1) presenting another student’s work as your own, (2) presenting an author’s work or ideas as your own without adequate citation, and (3) using work completed for another course. Such activities will not be tolerated in this course, and students suspected of academic misconduct will be dealt with according to the procedures outlined in the calendar at: https://ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-academic-misconduct-procedure.pdf

For students wishing to know more about what constitutes plagiarism and how to properly cite the work of others, the Department of Anthropology and Archaeology recommends that they attend Academic Integrity workshops offered through the Student Success Centre: https://www.ucalgary.ca/student-services/student-success/learning/academic-integrity
Instructor Intellectual Property

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy
Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) legislation in Alberta disallows the practice of having students retrieve assignments from a public place, such as outside an instructor’s office, the department office, etc. Term assignments will be returned to students individually, during class or during the instructor’s office hours; if students are unable to pick up their assignments from the instructor, they must provide the instructor with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to be used for the return of the assignment.

Posting of Grades and Picking-up of Assignments
Small quizzes will be graded automatically right after submitting through D2L. The grades of midterm and final exams will be made available electronically through the course D2L web page in a week after the exam. Grades will not be available at the Department of Anthropology and Archaeology’s main office.

Academic Accommodations
It is the student’s responsibility to request academic accommodations, according to the university policies and procedures listed in the University Calendar.

The student accommodation policy can be found at: https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf

Students needing an accommodation because of a disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf.

Students needing an accommodation based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need, preferably in writing to their instructor or the Department Head (email: pcdawson@ucalgary.ca).

Copyright Legislation
All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright-policy.pdf and requirements of the copyright act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplines under the Non-Academic Misconduct Act.

Wellness and Mental Health Resources
The University of Calgary recognizes the pivotal role that student mental health plays in physical health, social connectedness, and academic success and aspires to create a caring and supportive campus community where individuals can freely talk about mental health and receive supports when needed. We encourage you to explore the mental health resources available throughout the university community, such as counselling, self-help resources, peer support, or skills-building available through the SU Wellness Centre (Room 370, MacEwan Student Centre, https://www.ucalgary.ca/wellnesscentre/services/mental-health-services) and the Campus Mental Health Strategy website (http://www.ucalgary.ca/mentalhealth/).

Students requiring assistance are encouraged to email the Student at Risk line if they or others appear to need wellness assistance: sar@ucalgary.ca. For more immediate response, please call: 403-210-9355 and select option #2.
