Office Hours: Mon/Wed/Fri 14:30-15:30:00 or by appointment

Course Description

The goal of this course is to provide students with a kaleidoscopic introduction to the anthropological study of African societies south of the Sahara. The principle themes of the course are: African history including agricultural innovation and state formation; the “incorporation” of Africa into European thought, especially how anthropology has represented African societies during the 20th Century; and the representation of African themes in the modern world, including through the media.

The course is organized thematically around a series of readings that give students an overview of the diversity of scholarship on a given topic. We begin with a brief introduction and overview of the African continent and its history, and then look at key topics in African anthropology such as tribe/ethnicity, witchcraft, gender, economics and nationalism. There will be an opportunity, especially through the ethnography texts, to examine some aspects of Africa in the contemporary world.

Missed Course work: Note Carefully

Any one of items 1 - 3 missing will result in the transfer of that value to the Final examination, no special arrangements or documentation required.

If a second item of course work is missed, written documentation from a licensed authority (e.g. Student Health services physician, Disability Resource Centre) must accompany any request for an alternate assignment.

Return of Course Work

Quizzes and midterm examination will be returned at a subsequent class or during office hours on presentation of student ID. Any uncollected course work will be returned at the final examination.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations. If you are a student with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre, please contact their office at 220-8237. You are required to discuss your needs with your instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the start of this course. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation.

PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING

Plagiarism: "to steal and pass off the ideas or words of another as one's own" (Webster's). Plagiarism will not be tolerated and will automatically result in a failing grade for the submission. Any student caught plagiarizing July also be subject to additional University sanctions. Students are expected to be familiar with the Anthropology Departments policy on intellectual honesty available at: <https://www.anth.ucalgary.ca/home/links/intellectual-honesty-guidelines>

EMERGENCY EVACUATION:

In the event that the classroom should need to be evacuated due to an emergency situation please note that the primary assembly point shall be at Social Science Food Court and the Professional Faculties Food Court shall be used as a secondary assembly point.

Communication Policies

Outside lectures and office hours, the primary forms of communication in the course take place through Blackboard, including the bulletin board, email and chat rooms. Please do NOT leave urgent messages on my Office phone voicemail. Either email me on my U of C email or contact the Dept Secretary for my home phone #. Meetings with the TA to be arranged by email.

PowerPoint Slides/Lecture Notes

PowerPoint slides and Word Notes related to lectures will be posted on Blackboard after the lectures in which they are used. It is my goal to have the slides available for you on Blackboard within 72 hours of the lecture. In the event that I am forced to miss a class for health or other urgent reasons that are beyond my control, I may post essential lecture material online.

Please Note: lecture notes are NOT a substitute for reading the relevant chapter.

Bulletin Board

Any questions that you may have that relate to course content, course procedures, the assignments or the readings should be posted to the main bulletin board. This allows everyone in the class to see the responses that I give and it makes my life a bit easier because I won't have to answer 6 identical questions. It also will hopefully jump start the bulletin board as a venue for informal discussions about the course.

Email

Questions on more personal issues can be sent to my University email. I will check my email once a day during the week and I will try to reply to you within 72 hours.
