COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This course introduces students to the historical processes that have shaped Indigenous-settler relations in Canada from contact to the present. These relations are examined through a variety of lenses such as Indigenous, ethnohistorical, political, cultural, environmental, and legal. The course begins with a description of Indigenous and non-indigenous peoples pre-contact, followed by an examination of colonialism, the Indian Act and Aboriginal policies, the numbered treaties, Indian Residential Schools and the Truth & Reconciliation Commission, the Sixties Scoop, comprehensive land claims, and the pursuit of self-government.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES:
By the end of the course students will be expected to:
1. Describe the history and experiences of Canada’s Indigenous peoples in relation to changing political, environmental, legal, and cultural circumstances.
2. Explain the major themes and events that have shaped the current relationship between Indigenous peoples and newcomers.
3. Describe the historical processes that have shaped Indigenous rights in Canada
4. Have improved oral and written communication skills by participating in class discussions and through written assignments.
5. Have improved critical reading and analytical skills by analysing both primary and secondary sources including sources available on the Internet, in digital or museum collections, in the University Library.
6. Analyze Indigenous issues from multiple perspectives, e.g. indigenous, governmental, media etc.
7. Evaluate how differences in power and agency have impacted the identities of Canada’s indigenous peoples.
REQUIRED TEXTS

ADDITIONAL READINGS
Links to additional readings in the Taylor Family Digital Library or located online through the library search databases will be made available on D2L.

COURSE FORMAT:
This course will follow an interactive lecture-discussion style format accompanied by the occasional film or video. Class discussions and lectures will not repeat or cover all the material in the texts but will elaborate on selected topics to provide a deeper understanding of the material. Assigned textbook readings may be augmented with suggested additional readings and handouts and periodic analysis of primary sources.

DESIRE TO LEARN (D2L):
All course materials and information, as well as unofficial grades, will be posted on D2L.

TOPHAT
Students are required to set up a Top Hat (TH) account. TH will be used to survey class opinion, assess comprehension, and for other purposes. A 10% participation mark will be based on Top Hat quizzes. The university has a site license for the application and accounts can be set up at:

https://app.tophat.com/register/student/

COURSE POLICIES

Cell Phone and Laptop Policy
Cell phones must be turned off during the class except when in use for Top Hat (see below). Laptops and tablets should be used only for taking notes. Since the screens can be distracting to students sitting behind, if you wish to use your laptop or tablet please sit toward the back of the class.

Email Policy
In any email correspondence please begin with the course code (anth361) in the subject line along with the subject of your message. Most of the time, you can expect a reply to an email within 24 hours. Please do NOT expect and immediate reply. You should also know that I only rarely reply to emails evenings or weekends. Also, I will not reply to emails that are not signed at least with your first name.

Deferred Exams:
A student who is absent from a test for legitimate reasons must discuss an alternative course of action with the instructor. Deferral of the final exam requires Registrar approval. The instructor at their discretion may transfer the percentage weight for the test to the final examination, if there is a final examination in the course, set another test, etc. Documentation supporting the reason for missing an exam may be required. Deferred exams may be in a different format than the regularly scheduled exam, e.g. essay style questions instead of multiple choice questions. Students must be aware that they are responsible for payment of any charge associated with the medical assessment and documentation as this service falls outside the realm of services provided by the Provincial Health Care Plan

Academic misconduct
The University expects Students to conduct Academic Activities with integrity and intellectual honesty and to recognize the importance of pursuing and transmitting knowledge ethically. “Academic Misconduct” includes such things as Cheating, Falsification; Plagiarism, Unauthorized Assistance and failure to comply with exam regulations or an Instructor’s expectations regarding conduct required of Students completing academic assessments. Academic Misconduct is a serious form of intellectual dishonesty with significant consequences. Students who participate in, or encourage the commission of, Academic Misconduct will be subject to disciplinary action which could include Probation, Suspension, or Expulsion from the University.
