COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The course begins by examining the various theoretical approaches anthropologists have used to understand the topics of perennial interest in the anthropology of religion: spirit possession, divination, ritual, witchcraft, magic and symbolism. The relationship of religion to healing, gender, and power, is also examined. The course concludes by looking at new religious movements and contemporary topics such as the relation between religion, terrorism and nationalism.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Upon successful completion of this class, students will:

- 1 Be able to identify and distinguish between the basic concepts, theories methods and central issues in the anthropological study of religion;
- 2 Be able to apply anthropological principles and concepts to critically assess religion within one's own society through study of religion in other societies and cultures.
- 3 Gain a better understanding and appreciation of the diversity of religious expression in the world and the ways people have organized their lives and given meaning to their experiences.
- 4 Be able to demonstrate the links between the individual, their social world, and global religious processes.
- 5 Have improved their verbal and written communication skills through in-class discussion as well as a response paper and essay-style exams.

REQUIRED TEXT:

Moro P.A (ed), 2013. Magic, Witchcraft, and Religion: A Reader in the Anthropology of Religion (9th edn.). New York, NY: McGraw-Hill. ISBN-13: 978-0078034947

Additional Readings

Links to additional readings will be made available on D2L.

FORMAT

This class will follow an interactive lecture-discussion-seminar format based on the readings, which contain both classic and contemporary articles, and the occasional film. The classes are intended to contextualize and expand on the readings, and will not repeat or cover all the material in the text but will elaborate on selected topics to provide a deeper understanding of the material. Examples of various anthropological perspectives will be drawn from non-Western as well as Western cultures. Assigned textbook readings may be augmented with additional readings links to which will be provided on D2L.

COURSE POLICIES

Desire to Learn (D2L): All course materials and information, as well as unofficial grades, will be posted on D2L.

Email Policy

In any email correspondence please begin with the course code (anth363) in the subject line along with the subject of your message. Most of the time, you can expect a reply to an email within 24 hours. Please do NOT expect an immediate reply. You should also know that I will only rarely reply to emails on the weekends. Also I will not reply to emails that are not signed at least with your first name.

Cell Phone and Laptop Policy

Cell phones must be turned off during the class except when in use for Top Hat Monocle (see below). Laptops and tablets should be used only for taking notes. Since the screens can be distracting to students sitting behind, if you wish to use your laptop or tablet please sit toward the back of the class.

TopHat

- Students are required to set up a Top Hat (TH) account. TH will be used to assess participation and comprehension which are grade components (see below) for the course. The university has a site license for the application and accounts can be set up at <https://app.tophat.com/register/student/>
- The TH URL for the course is: <https://app-ca.tophat.com/e/287889>
- The password for the course is: Religion (Case sensitive)
