Anthropology 391: Anthropological Theory

“I chose anthropology [as a major], since it offered the greatest opportunity to write high-minded balderdash.”

— Kurt Vonnegut,

Class time and location:

MWF, 11:00 – 11:50; Education Classroom Block 388

Course Description:

Broadly speaking, anthropology is a holistic study of all possible human lifeways. It focuses both on the variation between lifeways, but also their commonalities. In order to explain both the variations and commonalities, anthropologists have formulated theories that can be used to critically analyze observations of people in their daily lives. Though theory and ethnography are invariably separated out in anthropological writings and discussions, they are actually two sides of the same coin. Theory is used to illuminate or explain what happens in ethnography, and ethnography provides explanatory power to theory. In short, theory and ethnography, without one another, are pretty meaningless.

This course aims to introduce students to the fundamentals of anthropological theory through seven of the most important concepts in anthropology since the 19th century: race, history, society, function, structure, gender and representation. Through lectures and discussions, we will try and understand why theory is good to think with – how different theories can give us varying insight into the same event or phenomenon, and why certain theories do a better job of explaining than others.

Course Format:

This course will follow an interactive lecture and discussion style format, accompanied by the occasional film or documentary in class. Readings are crucial – they are the most important part of this class. Students are expected to come to class prepared to discuss the readings and ask questions. You do not have to purchase any textbooks. All course materials and information will be posted on the class website. A lecture outline for each class will be posted online immediately before the class. Only some of the supplementary video clips viewed in class will be available online.

Course Assignments and Assessment:

In addition to the readings, students are expected to complete 7 reading reflection forms throughout the course of the semester, take 5 surprise reading quizzes, write one in-class midterm examination, and write one final exam.

Students will be evaluated on the basis of a 100-point system, whereby:

7 Reading Reflections	35%
5 Reading Quizzes	5%
Midterm Exam	25% October 27
Final Exam	35% Registrar Scheduled. Date, time, and location TBA

The final mark out of 100, will then be converted to a letter grade as follows:

A+	94.9 – 100%	A	89.9 – 94.8%	A-	84.9 – 89.8%
B+	79.9 – 84.8%	B	74.9 – 79.8%	B-	70.9 – 74.8%
C+	66.9 – 70.8%	C	62.9 – 66.8%	C-	58.9 – 62.8%
D+	54.9% - 58.8%	D	49.9 – 54.8%	F	49.8% and below

Assignment details:

Reading Quizzes:

- Students will be administered 5 reading quizzes, without advance warning throughout the semester.
- These reading quizzes will cover details about the readings for that day, to make sure that students have done the readings. For example, if you receive a quiz on the day we will be discussing Durkheim's Elementary Forms of Religious Life, then the quiz will cover this same Durkheim text, and no other text.
- The quizzes will consist of five multiple choice questions, handed out at the beginning of class.
- You will get the full points for each quiz (1 % of your total grade) just for being present in class and taking the quiz. Even if you get a question wrong, you will still receive full points. Think of the quizzes as a type of participation grade. If you are in class to do all of the 5 quizzes, you will get a full 5% of your grade.
- The point of the quiz is to both ensure attendance, but also to practice answering multiple choice questions about theory, and to test yourself on your reading. The multiple choice questions on the quizzes will be similar to the multiple choice questions you can expect on your midterm and on your final.

Reading Reflections:

- Students are expected to fill in the Reading Reflection form (see D2L website) for 7 weeks worth of reading – that is, they must hand in 7 forms throughout the course of the semester. You will notice that there are 9 opportunities to hand in reading reflections – you only have to give in reading reflections on 7 of those 9 opportunities. You are given a few extra opportunities to account for weeks that may be really busy and you may not have time to do a reading reflection.

- Reading Reflection forms are meant to summarize what you have learned over the course of the week, and not only clarify some of your ideas about the readings, but also act as a study guide later on for your midterm and final examinations.
- The Reading Reflection form must be printed out, filled out to completion by hand, and handed in on Monday the following week, at the beginning of class. For example, if you are doing a reading reflection for Week II, you must hand the reading reflection in on the Monday of Week III. You cannot hand in, for example, a reading reflection for Week II on Monday of Week IV. Look at your calendar in advance, pick out the reflections you will do and hand them in on their due date.
- You can only hand in paper copies of your reading reflections at the beginning of class. No emailed reflections will be accepted.
- No late reflections will be accepted. Late reflections will automatically receive a grade of zero.

Midterm exam:

- Students will be administered an in-class midterm exam (50 minutes) that will have two sections: multiple choice questions and short answer questions.

Final exam:

- Students will be administered a final exam (2 hours) during the final exam period that will have three sections: multiple choice, short answer and one essay questions. Students will have two essay questions to choose from on the final exam. In the essay question, students will be asked to answer the question while discussing 4-5 texts from the semester. Each exam question will cover different theoretical texts.

Important to consider:

1) Deferred exams are possible only for serious reasons (and the request for a deferral must be backed up with written documentation). A missed exam automatically receives a grade of zero. In the event of an emergency, the office of the Department of Anthropology and Archaeology must be contacted immediately and before the start of the exam: (403) 220-6516.

2) Students are responsible for materials covered in the readings and in the lectures. Classroom materials missed due to absences are the sole responsibility of the student.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/access/accommodations/policy>

Students needing an Accommodation because of a Disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Students needing an Accommodation based on a Protected Ground other than Disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to the instructor of this course.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is essential to the pursuit of learning and scholarship in a university, and to ensuring that a degree from the University of Calgary is a strong signal of each student's individual academic achievements. As a result, the University treats cases of cheating and plagiarism very seriously. Non-academic integrity also constitutes an important component of this program.

For detailed information on what constitutes academic and non-academic misconduct, please refer to the following link: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2-1.html>

All suspected cases of academic and non-academic misconduct will be investigated following procedures outlined in the University Calendar. If you have questions or concerns about what constitutes appropriate academic behavior or appropriate research and citation methods, you are expected to seek out additional information on academic integrity from your instructor or from other institutional resources.

Where there is a criminal act involved in plagiarism, cheating or other academic misconduct, e.g., theft (taking another student's paper from their possession, or from the possession of a faculty member without permission), breaking and entering (forcibly entering an office to gain access to papers, grades or records), forgery, personation and conspiracy (impersonating another student by agreement and writing their paper) and other such offences under the Criminal Code of Canada, the University may take legal advice on the appropriate response and, where appropriate, refer the matter to the police, in addition to or in substitution for any action taken under these regulations by the University

TEACHING EVALUATIONS / USRI (Universal Student Ratings of Instruction)

At the University of Calgary, feedback provided by students through the Universal Student Ratings of Instruction (USRI) survey provides valuable information to help with evaluating instruction, enhancing learning and teaching, and selecting courses. Your responses make a difference, please participate! Website: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/usri/>

Writing Across the Curriculum

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and, in fact, should cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support, part of the Student Success Centre, can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance

Emergency Evacuation Assembly Points: In the event of an emergency that requires evacuation, please refer to the following link to become familiar with the assembly points for the class: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints>

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act: Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act

The University of Calgary is committed to protecting the privacy of individuals who work and study at the University or who otherwise interact with the University in accordance with the standards set out in the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. Please refer to the following link for detailed information:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/legalservices/foip>

The Department of Anthropology and Archaeology's FOIP (Freedom of Information and Privacy) policy requires all reports/examinations to be returned to students during class time or the instructor's office hours. Any term work not picked up will be placed in the Anthropology and Archaeology Office (ES620) for distribution. Any student not wishing to have their work placed in the office must make alternative arrangements with the course instructor early in the term.

Safewalk Information: Campus Security, in partnership with the Students' Union, provides the Safewalk service, 24 hours a day to any location on Campus including the LRT, parking lots, bus zones and University residences. Contact Campus Security at (403) 220-5333 or use a help phone, and Safewalkers or a Campus Security Officer will accompany you to your campus destination.
